

The Western Equestrian Society (WES)
YOUTH WESTERN TRAINING SUBSIDY

If you plan to, or would like to encourage youth riders in your region into western, even if they bring their own pony and ride in English tack. They will be very welcome and eligible for up to 50% off their clinic fee to a maximum of £25.00 per day, provided the rider is attending a training session, Western experience day, Introduction to Western riding or a youth clinic. The only criteria is that it is WES approved and run by, or in conjunction with a WES approved instructor. All approved training dates will be published on the WES website and if you don't see anything, please contact your Area Representative and ask them to help arrange something in your area.
